

DATA4CitSciNews Event - 28 November 2022: privacy notice

The NEWSERA and ENJOI project organize a joint event dedicated to data journalism, misinformation and citizen science. This document presents the information related to data and information treatment and participants rights on it.

PERSONAL DATA, PRIVACY AND PARTICIPANTS RIGHTS

We care about your data and your rights on them: all personal data are regulated under the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) - Regulation (EU) 2016/679 on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data and on the free movement of such data, so you can exercise your rights according to this law.

What kind of data will we collect?

We will collect different types of data: some of them are mandatory and the rest are optional.

The mandatory fields are: first name, second name, city and country, email address and valid ID. The optional data are: job title and organization.

What will the information be used for?

We will use demographic data (city and country, and job title and organization) only for statistical purposes. We will not use personal data for the research. We will require personal - and optionally institutional - data to keep contact, if you agree to provide us with it. The ID data is needed to guarantee access to the venue of the event.

Retention schedule

Personal Data will be stored until the end of the NEWSERA project and the publication of the correspondent final report: March 2023.

Who is responsible for data processing

Ibercivis Foundation, one of the NEWSERA partners, is responsible for processing and protecting all personal - and no personal - data obtained. Ibercivis is a non-profit private foundation with NIF: G99330094. It was created on November 14, 2011 in Madrid. Its objectives are to continue with its work of collaboration with citizen research and carry out dissemination and training activities. It has a fiscal address in Campus Río Ebro, R&D Building, C/Mariano Esquillor, s/n, 50018 Zaragoza, Spain. The email address for ethical issues is ethics@ibercivis.es.

Personal data transfer

We follow strict security procedures when storing personal data. Under no circumstances we will transfer personal data to third parties outside the NEWSERA Consortium.

Rights and how to exercise them

You have the right to:

- Request information about whether we have personal data about you and, if so, what information we have, why we have it and how we are using it.
- Request access to your personal data. This allows you to receive a copy of your personal data and to correct any incomplete or incorrect information we have about you.
- Request personal data deletion. This allows you to delete or ask us to delete your personal data.
- Request to transfer your personal data to you or to a third party in an electronic and structured format - commonly known as the right to data portability.
- You can exercise any of these rights and solve any questions related to your personal data contacting with the NEWSERA's Data Protection Officer: Francisco Sanz, tel: +34 876 55 53 96, email: ethics@ibercivis.es, Postal address: Ibercivis Foundation, Campus Río Ebro, Edificio I+D, C/ Mariano Esquillor, s/n, 50018 Zaragoza, Spain.
- You will not have to pay any fee to access your personal data - or to exercise any other of your rights.
